Art Special! Focus on Ceramics – Monday, April 2, 1-2:30pm

Make a project that is sure to be a treasured keepsake for years to come! After a short tutorial, budding artists will paint their own 6x6 inch ceramic tiles, provided by Color Me Mine in downtown Wayne. There is a $10 materials fee, to be paid in person at the library. Grades K-2.

Journey of a Book – Monday, April 9, 4:30-5:30pm

Have you ever wondered how a book goes from being brand-new to being ready for you to check out of the library? Or what happens to books after you put them in the book drop? Or how to check books in and out? Go behind the scenes at the library during National Library Week and see for yourself! Grades 3 and up.

James Kennedy and the 90-Second Newbery – Tuesday, April 10, 7pm

What happens when a Newbery Award-winning novel is smushed down into a 90-second film? Well, hilarity, for one thing. Come see for yourself when author and 90-second Newbery organizer James Kennedy shows a selection of kid-made films from around the country. Mr. Kennedy will also be reading from his laugh-out-loud fantasy novel, The Order of Odd-Fish. Grades 3 and up.

Framed Art Show Opening Reception - Tuesday, May 22, 4:30-5pm

The students in the "FRAMED! A Journey in Art" program have been drawing and painting since September, and they are eager to show off their work. Join us in the temporary Tredyffrin Museum of Art (aka the Large Meeting Room) for the opening of our collection, meet the artists, and enjoy light refreshments. The works will be on exhibit through June 15. All ages.

All programs are sponsored by the Friends of Tredyffrin Public Library.
