Main Line
Genealogy Club

Genealogy: County Courthouse Research by Susan Evans

In Person and on Zoom

Thursday, Jan 11th @ 1PM

Many presentations cover the history of laws governing the transfer of property (real and property), immigration and more, but not where to find clues. As with most genealogical research, it may require close analysis of the information and documents you may already have. After finding clues in commonly acquired records, censuses, vital records, etc., folks will be taken through the process of accessing not only the records, but the courthouse itself. The handout and Zoom link will be sent to registered attendees.
